'Blazes Along the Trail': Exploring David Milne's Imaginative Vision

September 17, 2021 - January 22, 2022

Organized and circulated by the Art Gallery of Windsor;
Curated by Chris Finn

Milne's significance as an early twentieth century Canadian modernist artist rests on his focused and deeply personal artmaking strategies informed by an innovative aesthetic and stylistic approach. His vision differed markedly from the artistic intentions and ideological positioning of the landscape art of the Group of Seven whose works were perceived to be in alignment with a nation-building narrative which gained prominence in Canada following the First World War. The selection of Milne's works featured in this exhibition reveals the range of David Milne's inspiration in exploring media which supported his painting while also fostering new considerations in his approach to his art making.

Belinda Harrow: Unsettled

September 17, 2021 - January 22, 2022

Over the last ten years, animals have had a strong presence in Belinda Harrow's artistic practice. She is particularly interested in that precarious area where human and animal habitats overlap. As our human populations grow and spread, animal species are forced to adapt and change, creating disruptions in migratory patterns, feeding habits and even mating behaviours. Featuring drawing, painting and sculpture, the exhibition Unsettled focuses specifically on the animals that live in and around Regina, situating them within some of the city's most recognizable landscapes. The positioning of these resourceful, native animal species within these urban environments provide us an opportunity to examine the current post-colonial world that we share, reflect on the impacts of colonialism and consider what the future might bring for us all.

'Blazes Along the Trail': Exploring David Milne's Imaginative Vision and Belinda Harrow: Unsettled
Opening Receptions: Friday, September 24th at 7:00 pm and Saturday, September 25th at 1:00 pm.
In-person, limited capacity. Visit our website to book your free ticket.

Lost Children of the Residential School System The Memorial at St. Andrew's United Church

HERITAGE GALLERY / Now on Display

In late May, 2021, 215 unmarked graves were discovered at the former site of the Kamloops Indian Residential School in B.C. This sparked an investigation process that has found thousands more such graves at residential school sites in Saskatchewan and across Canada

Moose Jaw's Cassidy and Kayleigh Olson spearheaded a display on the steps of St. Andrew's United Church to acknowledge the loss of these children. Community members contributed over 500 pairs of shoes as well as stuffed animals, candles, notes, and photos when they would visit the display and pay respects.

Several of the objects from this display are now on view in our Heritage Gallery in a new exhibit, Lost Children of the Residential School System.

MJM&AG will be open to the public on September 30, the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation.

Moose Jaw Art Guild: Looking Out My Window

LOBBY / November 12-January 9

This exhibition will feature recent works by the members of the Moose Jaw Art Guild.

The Moose Jaw Art Guild exhibition is the longest-running continual annual exhibition at the MJM&AG. Every year, this exhibition brings together the emerging and professional artists of the community with the public, to celebrate the practice of making art in the community of Moose Jaw.

This year's exhibition, titled Looking Out My Window, will feature work reflecting on the impact of COVID-19.

Rita St. Amant's hand-painted silk scarves are among the latest additions to our Gift Shop.

Gift Shop

Check out our online gift shop! Whether you need some art supplies for your latest project, some new local art to spruce up your office, or the perfect holiday gift, you'll be able to find something in our selection.

Vivian Barber is Retiring!

After twenty-three years of service as our Preparator, Vivian Barber has recently announced her plans to retire this fall. We thank her for her dedication to our organization and contributing her high level of professionalism in every task and project she is involved with. She makes every exhibition look its very best and every exhibition tour operate smoothly with her expertise in packing and crating. Hers will be big shoes to fill and we will certainly miss her on our team. Enjoy your coming retirement, Vivian! You've certainly earned it and please come and visit!

Interested applicants in the Preparator position should watch for an upcoming job posting in late September.
