Pandemic Time Capsule

Would you or your family like to be part of Moose Jaw's History? Your image could become part of the Moose Jaw Museum & Art Gallery's "Pandemic Time Capsule" and our next temporary Heritage Gallery exhibit opening in the Spring of 2021.

We would like to invite residents of Moose Jaw and the surrounding area to submit images of the interesting, touching, creative, fun, and unique ways they passed time during the quarantine.

We want to see images of how you and your family spent this time, whether it be working from home, attending virtual school, picking up some new hobbies, volunteering, etc.

Did you watch drive-in movies or see a car parade? Did you create a lawn display for a graduating student or explore a park you'd never visited? Did you carefully arrange the space behind your chair so your Zoom background was just right? We want to know about it!

We are also interested in displaying homemade masks, if you have any to submit (clean and in good condition).

Any submissions used in our next exhibit will receive a free kit for one of our upcoming Clay at Home activities!

To enter - Like "Moose Jaw Museum & Art Gallery" and send your image through Facebook Messenger, or email your image to admin.mjmag@sasktel.net. Please include a one-sentence description of the photograph.

Membership:

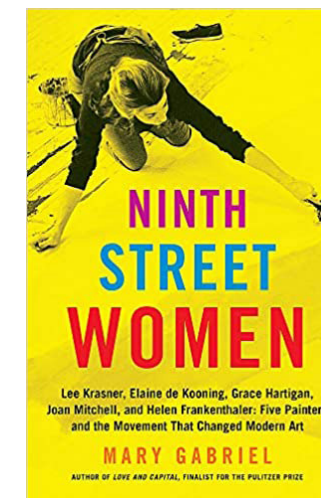

Memberships with the MJM&AG keep you informed about programming and events through the newsletters, facilitate discounts in the MJM&AG Gift Shop and for art class registrations, and allows you access to Members Only events.

An active membership will also get you a vote at the Annual General Meeting, coming up March 25.

You can now renew your membership online! mjmag.ca/membership

ARTBOOK CLUB:

For the latest session of the Artbook Club, as a tie-in for Fire in the Belly: Saskatchewan Women Artists from the MJM&AG Collection, we will be reading Ninth Street Women: Lee Krasner, Elaine de Kooning, Grace Hartigan, Joan Mitchell, and Helen Frankenthaler: Five Painters and the Movement That Changed Modern Art by Mary Gabriel.

This book discusses a group of women abstract painters who broke into the male-dominated Modern Art scene in the postwar USA, starting a movement in the process. It's available from most book and audiobook retailers, and at the Moose Jaw Public Library.

We will be meeting on Zoom to discuss it on Thursday, March 11, at 1:00 pm.

THANK YOU MARG!

After working with us for the last 18 years, both as a Gallery Greeter and as our Gift Shop Manager, Marg Bertsch is retiring. We thank her for her service to the Moose Jaw Museum & Art Gallery, and wish her all the best for a pleasant and relaxing retirement!

Welcome to Kathryn Ernst, our new Gift Shop Manager! We are excited to have Kathryn contribute a new vision for the shop.
